

Paul J Roberts – Biography

Paul J Roberts is a songwriter and musician from Leicester, UK. He currently performs as a Solo-Acoustic act (Covers and Originals to suit the Venue/Vibe).

He has been writing songs for many years, and has now amassed a huge back-catalogue of work spanning genres including mainstream rock, indie rock, and EDM. Paul's influences and inspirations include the likes of Bowie, Robert Smith, The Jesus And Mary Chain, Pixies, and Joy Division.

Paul's work is varied, ranging from Alternative and Indie vibes, through to straight-down-the-middle Dance and Rock Anthems. He works mainly in song writing, although has also begun to build a strong library of Instrumental Cues and Compositions, aimed at the TV, Film, Advertising, and Video Games industries.

Paul writes, records and produces all of his own music, and the music of others, working out of his home studio. As a performer, Paul is gigging constantly, and has supported the likes of The Frank and Walters, Tony Wright (Terrorvision), and Mark Morriss (Bluetones).
